

NANDKISHOR KAGLIWAL

Nandkishor Kagliwal has done his MS in management from USA, is a first generation entrepreneur. He is founder-chairman of Nath Group of industries. Nath Group has presence in seeds, food processing, manufacturing of value added paper & boards, industrial chemicals and education.

Presently Honorary Consul for the republic of Tunisia and Honorary Commercial Attache for the State of Nebraska, USA.

Deeply involved with agricultural research, rural development, education and health care. Instrumental in setting up Nath School of Business & Technology, a modern hospital and the now acclaimed Nath Valley School and various other socio-cultural institutions in Aurangabad region.

Nath Bio-Genes is an intensely research oriented pioneering seed company in India. "Nath Seeds" is a household name in the farming community. The company works closely with over 15,000 seed growers and produces seeds on about 30,000 acres of land and provides quality seeds for nearly 6 million acres of land.

Nath Group has established a Mega Food Park near Aurangabad providing state of the art, integrated infrastructure for food processing industries.

Nath Group has two paper mills located at Aurangabad and Vapi producing value added industrial and cultural papers. The group also has substantial presence in manufacturing of industrial chemicals.

Served as a member of Planning Commission of Maharashtra, President of Maharashtra Economic Development Council (MEDC) for five years and Chairman (WR), Federation of Indian Export Organizations (FIEO). He was on the board of State Bank of Hyderabad, IDBI and SICOM. Currently he is Member of Managing Committee of FIEO, MEDC, IMC Chamber of Commerce & Industry (IMC), Central Institute for Research on Cotton Technology (CIRCOT)

He enjoys reading, widely travelled and is a much sought after speaker.